Friends of the Museum

The mission of the Friends of the Southwest Virginia Museum is to act as a Citizens' Support Organization (CSO) in assisting to identify and promote activities to conserve, enhance, and interpret the cultural and historic resources of the Southwest Virginia Museum.

The "Friends" group meets monthly to plan work projects and activities to support the Museum. Some of the projects the group is involved in are: assisting with programs at the Museum, preserving history through the establishment of a virtual exhibit room in the Museum, maintaining a "Friends" of the Museum website, and organizing the "Gathering in the Gap" Music Festival. Your time and talents are needed! To learn more, visit the "Friends" at their website: www.swvamuseum.org or call the Museum at 276-523-1322.
