Join the Dogwood Garden Club in the Museum's Victorian Parlor for an excellent display of our area's "green thumbs." Each Christmas season, the Dogwood Garden Club and two other garden clubs present Annual Christmas Flower Shows for the community. This year, they are proudly showcasing their work in the Museum. On the eve of its 60th anniversary, the club is dedicated to community beautification through projects around town: planting dogwood trees along the Kelly Dogwood Trail, maintenance of the Circular Flower Bed at Glencoe Cemetery and the Elizabeth Fox Moore herb bed at the John Fox, Jr. Museum, and plantings for Virginia's Official Outdoor Drama, The Trail of the Lonesome Pine.
